
AUTO Published September 2, 2025 11:44am EDT

Major automaker hit by cyberattack, says incident 'severely disrupted' operations

Jaguar Land Rover joins string of major corporations hit by cyberattacks

Add Fox Business on Google

By Daniella Genovese | FOXBusiness

How can AI be used to 'accelerate and automate work' against cyber attacks?

Palo Alto Networks SVP & Unit 42 Head Wendi Whitmore provides insight on responding to cyber hacks on 'The Claman Countdown.'

Jaguar Land Rover said its retail and production activities were "severely disrupted" after the company was attacked by a ransomware group.

The U.K.-based automaker, owned by India's Tata Motors, said in a statement Tuesday that it "took immediate action to mitigate its impact by proactively shutting down" its systems after being impacted by a cyber incident.

The company said there isn't any evidence to date that customer data was stolen, and it is "working at pace to restart our global applications in a controlled manner."

Vehicles are seen for sale at a Land Rover dealership in Houston, Texas. (RONALDO

STEELMAKER NUCOR EXPERIENCES CYBERSECURITY INCIDENT, SHUTS DOWN SOME PRODUCTION

This marks the latest in a string of cyber and ransomware attacks that have impacted companies around the globe as bad actors become more sophisticated.

Aflac was targeted by cyber criminals earlier this summer amid an ongoing hacking spree targeting the insurance industry.

GROCERY CHAIN'S DISTRIBUTOR SUFFERS CYBERATTACK, DISRUPTING OPERATIONS

Philadelphia Insurance Companies and Erie Insurance were also hit by attacks, causing widespread disruptions to their IT systems.

The U.K.-based automaker is owned by India's Tata Motors. (Andrey Rudakov/Bloomberg via Getty Images / Getty Images)

HACKERS TARGET INSURANCE GIANT IN ONGOING INDUSTRY CYBER SPREE

United Natural Foods Inc., a distributor for Whole Foods and other grocers, disclosed in July that it suffered a cyber incident, causing temporary disruptions in its operations.

That same month, the FBI warned that the notorious cybercriminal group dubbed "Scattered Spider" was targeting the airline sector.

Vehicles are seen for sale at a Land Rover dealership in Houston, Texas, on April 7, 2025. (RONALDO SCHEMIDT/AFP via Getty Images)

GET FOX BUSINESS ON THE GO BY CLICKING HERE

Last month, Air France and KLM also sent a warning to customers about a data breach that hit their customer service platform.

Quotes displayed in real-time or delayed by at least 15 minutes. Market data provided by Factset. Powered and implemented by FactSet Digital Solutions. Legal Statement.

This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten, or redistributed. ©2026 FOX News Network, LLC. All rights reserved. FAQ - New Privacy Policy